Sara Cobb (Ph.D., University of Massachusetts, Amherst) is Director of the Institute for Conflict Analysis and Resolution (ICAR) at George Mason University.

Dr. Cobb specializes in the analysis of conflict narratives and contributes to the critique of "neutrality" in conflict resolution processes. Her blend of academic research, program development, and practice enables Dr. Cobb to offer both a systematic critique of traditional methods for conflict intervention, and new methods for intervention that focus on the transformation of narratives in conflict processes.
